second letter

Dear Mr Murray

INFRINGEMENT OF CROWN COPYRIGHT

You have requested more time to seek legal advice. I have my client's instructions.

We are prepared to extend the deadline for you to give an undertaking until 4pm on Thursday 13 July 2006 on condition that the documents referred to in my first letter are immediately removed from your website and not reproduced by you anywhere else whilst negotiations regarding the undertaking are ongoing. If you do not immediately remove the documents from your website the offer of an extension will be withdrawn and the original deadline of 4pm on Monday 10 July will apply.

In the event that you fail to give the required undertaking by 4pm on 13 July, or if the documents reappear on the website during the course of negotiations, my client reserves the right to issue a claim against you without further notice.

I should be grateful for your response by return.

Yours sincerely

Gareth Buttrill
